

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

LEARNING BASS CLEF!

D E F G A B C D E F G A B C D E

Bass Clef is also called "F" clef because the symbol begins on the note "F." If you turn your head to the side, you can see how the Bass Clef looks like a frowny face, with the lip curling around "F."

F

Also, the first ledger line at the top of the Bass Clef is the very same note as the first ledger line at the bottom of the Treble Clef. That is to say that, both notes are "Middle C!"

(Middle C)

(Middle C)

See how they look the same?

Here are two little tricks to help you remember the lines and spaces of the Bass Clef:

(G)ood (B)ands (D)o (F)ine (A)lways

(A)ll (C)ows (E)at (G)rass